

Time Management for Peak Performance

BC00.30

"Time is money" the saying goes. Unfortunately lots of it gets lost in disorganization and disruption. We want to control our day, but often the day controls us. Some days it seems we are slaves to our calendar and emails – with no free will to independently impact events.

This workshop will help you gain control of your day, organize your work flow, learn how plan effectively, and reduce the stress in your life. It starts with better understanding you and how you prefer to work. Use this information to make some personal changes in how you view, organization and take control of your day. This class is full of ideas for organizing your workload, work space and your work day.
